Zachariah—A Fit Companion to the "Heathen Chinese."

Carboro' Southerner.

BY L. WADDELL

Which is why I work.

And I say what I mean—

That for ways that are dark,

And for tricks that are keen,

Old Zachary he is peculiar,

Which the same it is plain to see.

Old Zach is his name,

But I shall not deny,

That instead of the same

Old Nick might imply

His insults malficious the better,

Which the same it is plain to be seen.

Old Zach is his name,

But I shall not deny,

That instead of the same

Old Nick might imply

His insults malficious the better,

Which the same it is plain to be seen.
